The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve as experts on the Panel of Experts on Libya. The Panel of Experts on Libya, which is comprised of six experts, operates under the direction of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning Libya.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on Libya that will become vacant in August 2022. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned relevant areas of expertise and competence (or a combination thereof):

- arms,
- armed groups,
- finance,
- international humanitarian law,
- maritime,
- regional issues,
- transport

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For these positions, fluency in English is required; knowledge of Arabic is an advantage.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the expert panel established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4). For further information on the Panel of Experts on Libya, please visit:
