NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 4th September, 1991

G.S.R. 377(E)—In exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (a), (b) and (d) of sub-section (2) of Section 35 and clause (a) of Section 36 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 (33 of 1985), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987, namely:

1. (1) These rules may be called the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Second Amendment Rules, 1991.

2. (a) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

(b) In the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987, for rule 17, the following rule shall be substituted, namely—

"17. Application for review—

(1) No application for review shall be entertained unless it is filed within thirty days from the date of receipt of copy of the order sought to be reviewed.

(2) A review application shall ordinarily be heard by the same Bench which has passed the order, unless the Chairman may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct it to be heard by any other Bench.

(3) Unless otherwise ordered by the Bench concerned, a review application shall be disposed of by circulation and the Bench may either dispose the application or direct notice to the opposite party.

(4) Where an application for review of any judgment or order has been made and disposed of, no further application for review shall be entertained in the same matter.

(5) No application for review shall be entertained unless it is supported by a duly sworn affidavit indicating the source of knowledge, personal or otherwise, and also those which are sought on the back of the legal advice. The aforesaid affidavit in review application will also be a duly sworn affidavit wherever any service of feet is disputed."
