MEA ID No. Q/PA-II/575/14/2022, Dated 06 July 2022

REFERENCE: SCA/122(12)

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve as experts on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2127 (2013) on the Central African Republic, subject to the extension of the Panel's mandate by the Security Council in July 2022.

Nominations are sought for expert positions on the Panel of Experts on the Central African Republic that will become vacant in September 2022. Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned areas of expertise and competence:

- Arms
- Armed Groups
- Finance / Natural Resources
- Regional Issues
- Humanitarian Affairs

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations. For these positions, fluency and demonstrated drafting ability in English and French are required. Working knowledge of one other UN language would be an asset.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the expert panel established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4). For further information on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2127 (2013) on the Central African Republic, please visit: https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/sanctions/2127/panel-of-experts/work_mandate.

Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates, with contact information for three references, to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations no later than 18 July 2022, through the following e-mail address: sc-2127-committee@un.org.

In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online, by 18 July 2022, at:
