Frequently asked questions :-III.

Whether the Geology Stream of Geological Survey of Geological Survey of India is Question 1. classified as an Organised Group 'A' Service?

The queries seeking information about specific Services are transferred to the respective Answer: Cadre Controlling Authorities.

Whether benefit of Non-Functional Selection Grade can be extended to the Group 'A' Ouestion 2. Officers (General Central Service) Category?

In terms of this Department's O.M.No.22/1/2000-CRD dated 6.6.2000, the benefit of Answer: Non-Functional Selection Grade can be extended to the Organized Group 'A' Services only.

What are the benefits and privileges of the Organized Group 'A' Services? Ouestion 3. The following are the probable benefits of an organised group 'A' service: Answer:

- Promotion within reasonable time-period, subject to the availability of the i) vacancy. The career progression, however, varies from service to service.
- Benefits of Non-Functional Selection Grade / Non- Functional Junior ii) Administrative grade, as applicable.

What is the meaning of Organized Service? Question 4.

The attributes of an organised group 'A' service are available at this department's website Answer: (www.persmin.nic.in) under the link Central Services wing- Cadre Review Division-Recent Circulars.

Please provide a list of all the Organized Group 'A' Services. Question 5.

This Department does not maintain any separate list of organised group 'A' service. The Answer: details of Central Group 'A' services are, however, available on this department's website (www.persmin.nic.in)

Ouestion 6. What are the guidelines for cadre review of Group 'B' 'C' and 'D' Services.

> The guidelines for cadre review of Groups 'B'., 'C' & 'D' Cadres are contained to this Departments's Office Memorandum No. 2/1/87-PP dated 23.11.1987.

> > Under Secretary (CS-1 & CRD)

Under Secretary (Admn.) (Ms. Jayanthi Sriram)

Answer:

100 NUL 301

Department of Personnel & Training, North Block, New Delhi