DoPT personnel participate in a cleanliness drive at Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital

The Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) undertook a cleanliness drive in the premises of Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital here today under the ongoing Swachhta Pakhwara. Around 50 personnel of DoPT led by Shri Suresh Kumar, Deputy Secretary and Shri Rajeshwar Lal, Under Secretary enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive in the adjacent park /garden area of Administrative Block of the Hospital.

The DoPT is conducting various activities under the Swachhta Pakhwara being observed from June 16-30, 2017, the schedule allocated to it by the Ministry of Drinking Water and Sanitation.

During the cleanliness campaign, nine packets of garbage were collected. Mostly they were in the form of tree leaves and biodegradable in nature. One packet of miscellaneous garbage was also collected. All these garbage packets were handed over to the caretaker of hospital administration for proper utilisation/disposal of the garbage including for the purpose of composting.
